Falana Coleman-Zamora, AM, LCSW, is a Clinical Supervisor at Children’s Home + Aid, where she provides clinical supervision and therapeutic services to children and parents involved in the child welfare system. Ms. Coleman-Zamora also provides mental health consultation to families and staff in the Early Head Start and Head Start programs. Ms. Coleman-Zamora completed her apprenticeship during Cohort 3 of the Illinois Child Parent Psychotherapy Learning Collaborative (ILCPPLC) and is now an endorsed statewide CPP trainer. Falana Coleman-Zamora LCSW – falanazamora@gmail.com

Tina Dorow, MSW, MS, LCSW is a national CPP trainer and faculty member of the ILCPPLC. Ms. Dorow has been a therapist for over twenty years, working with families who have experienced trauma/loss within the child welfare, Early Intervention, and community mental health systems. Currently, she provides therapy to families and clinical consultation to a variety of early childhood and mental health professionals and programs. Tina Dorow LCSW – ttkdorow@yahoo.com

Lili Gray, MSSA, LCSW is a National CPP trainer. Ms. Gray has over 25 years of experience providing mental health treatment for young children and families. She is a sought out and popular trainer, speaker, and consultant for psychotherapists, Early Intervention providers as well as other early childhood workers in day care and preschools. She offers both didactic trainings as well as reflective consultation on trauma treatment, early childhood disorders and family engagement. In 2005 Patricia Van Horn, JD, PhD, trained Gray as the lead clinical supervisor piloting CPP in Illinois. Gray co-authored a chapter in the 2nd edition of Young Children and Trauma by Guildford Press. In 2001, she presented at the NTI Zero to Three Conference on Embedding and Sustaining Evidence Based practice in child welfare settings.

Lili Gray LCSW – liligray4@gmail.com

Carole Graybill, AM, LCSW. Ms. Graybill’s specialization in child trauma extends over 25 years. Her clinical identity is rooted in early experiences of working in domestic violence and the child welfare system. Ms. Graybill is a clinical and reflective consultant to a variety of practitioners and diverse settings; including emergency shelter staff, urban congregations, early intervention and Head Start providers. Ms. Graybill specialization is embedding trauma-informed practice in organizational systems. She delights in finding innovative ways to support professional growth. She is an endorsed National CPP trainer since 2011, counting every CPP learning cohort a unique opportunity.
